This guide features activities surrounding Lake Superior and Iron County, Wisconsin! Enjoy viewing the overlooks, hiking, and visiting the waterfalls! Pack a lunch or grab a pasty and enjoy this full day tour of the area! Visit all the spots, or choose the ones you want to see!

Little Girl's Point- Take a break and unplug on this simple, but well maintained County Park and Beach. Little Girls Point extends over a half mile along Lake Superior. The beach is a magnet for rock pickers and agate hunters with crystal clear water to swim, paddle and float the day away. If you look Northwest you can see the Apostle Islands and Northeast, the Porcupine Mountains. There is a picnic area with 2 pavilions, picnic tables, grills and stone buildings with restrooms.

Bald Mountain Trail- Take a relaxed walk to a gorgeous scenic overlook of the Gogebic-Penokee Range on the 0.8 mile interpretive trail.

Superior Falls- Superior Falls is a one of the tallest waterfalls in Wisconsin standing at 65 feet high. This is an amazing waterfall consisting of several drops before it flows into Lake Superior.

Saxon Falls- Saxon falls is an amazing waterfall that cascades a total of 90 feet. There are multiple trails and boardwalks that will lead you to the bottom or top of the falls. The trails to the top of the falls are right next to the river where you can wade into the shallow ends to cool off.

Foster Falls- Foster Falls is the 10th highest waterfall in Wisconsin standing at 25 feet high. This is a gorgeous waterfall and it is fairly easy access to.

Corrigan's Lookout- A short hike will lead you to a rock outcropping that overlooks Upson Lake.

Upson Falls- The falls drop 18 feet into the Potato River just north of Upson. Enjoy walking next to the rushing river, having lunch at the picnic tables and exploring around.

Montreal Trails (Miner's Bell)- Nestled high above the City of Montreal, this whistle was used in the mining days to signal shift changes to the miners. This is a beautiful area to stargaze and watch the northern lights. You can even see the Gile Flowage, Copper Peak and Lake Superior from there! Enjoy hiking here or explore the other trails!

Interstate Falls- Interstate Falls is a beautiful 18-foot waterfall on the Montreal River in Hurley, Wisconsin. Enjoy a .03 mile hike through the hardwood hemlock forest to the falls. Check out the deck area for a perfect view of the waterfalls! Enjoy exploring the river, watching the gorgeous falls or just relaxing on one of the picnic benches!

Kimball Falls- Kimball Falls is a smaller waterfall on the West Branch of the Montreal River located in Kimball Park. This is a great place to stop for a picnic lunch and explore the park! This large park offers a picnic area, playground, walking trails, fishing ramp area and pavilion near these falls.
